(Varsity and JV divisions)

Team Shirts

HRC will provide league shirts for each player. Each team will be assigned a color. Please wear during games. (Note: shirt sizes/entry fee must be turned in by May 22nd to receive team shirts)

The Game

1. Will follow Kansas High School Activities Association rules, with the following exceptions.
 - a. 2-20 minute halves with running clock, except for last minute of each half. During last minute of each half, clock will stop on all dead ball situations. If a team is ahead by 15 or more points the clock will continue to run.
 - b. 3 (60) second time-outs per game.
 - c. 3 minute half time
 - d. 5 minute warm-up between games.
 - e. Full Court Press Rule: If a team gets ahead by 20 or more points they must take off full court press defense.
 - f. Overtime rule: 1st overtime will be 2 minutes, with the clock stopping on last minute of the overtime on all dead ball situations. Each team will receive an additional time-out. 2nd overtime will be sudden death with the first team to score 3 winning.
 - g. Technical Foul Rule: 2 technical fouls will be an ejection from the game. If player or coach receives an ejection they must leave the gym within 3 minutes. See HRC guidelines.

Officiating

League uses certified officials or someone who is looking to get into officiating for the up-coming school year. The game will be called using KSHSAA basketball rules. The primary importance of the summer league is to work with your team for up-coming season and to promote playing the game the right way.

Uniforms

The HRC will provide each player a shirt with a number on back for games. Each team is assigned a shirt color. When you turn registration in, please list shirts sizes on roster.
